I'm sure it's no secret that, today, we live in very troubled times. Economic suffering... wars and civil unrest... famine and drought... natural disasters of staggering proportions.

Some days it all seems so overwhelming.

But what if I told you that, in spite of what you see on the news or hear from friends, life is outstanding for a select few who've not only discovered a powerful “inside connection” called Source Energy—but who also live with the unique mindset it bestows.

Better yet, based upon what we know is coming, things will just get better and better.

For those of us who've done the work of becoming more conscious and more connected to this powerful resource, we're even more excited that a new age of conscious connection—a new Age of Enlightenment—is about to converge on humankind. It's not a time to be feared, which is how most people will react. Instead, it's a time for celebration. And it will be a time of unprecedented bounty, joyfulness and human achievement.

For those already connected to Source Energy—that mysterious network of God power, eternal wisdom, unconditional love and the pro-active assistance of ascended souls that makes all human endeavor effortless and more expanded—this new age will be filled with continuous joy, profound abundance, flourishing riches, vibrant good health, blissful personal relationships, exciting career paths and so much more that we simply cannot conceive of.

Life will be easy...once we're connected to Source Energy.

And the best news is that anyone—including YOU—can learn the skills of connecting. Your first step is to spend the 20 to 30 minutes it will take to read through this revealing new report. It draws back the curtain on how connection to Source Energy and all its powerful ramifications—rather than being modern-day quackery—is actually a skill that cultures have practiced throughout history. In fact, most ancient religions actually foretell the coming age of consciousness through their prophecies, legends and teachings.

Of course, there's no one better to guide you in learning these skills than my good friend, Esperanza Universal. She's a leading authority in helping people “tune in” to this connection. And the story of how she came to be such a master teacher is fascinating in its own right. While you may just be hearing of Esperanza for the first time, she's worked with thousands of people around the world to bring them the abundance and happiness they deserve.

You'll discover through Esperanza's report, ‘The Next Convergence of Consciousness,’ that the fastest way to connect with supportive Source Energy is to heal yourself—emotionally, mentally and spiritually—and become once again open to the support this universal network has available to you. Esperanza uses inspired methods to create this profound transformation.

I hope you'll read with enthusiasm, as I did, and take to heart what Esperanza has to teach you.

The Coming 'New Age of Enlightenment' Has Been Heralded for Thousands of Years...

Most of the world's cultures, religions and philosophical traditions have foretold a coming age of enlightenment.

Hindus call it the Krita Age. Astrologers predict the Age of Aquarius. Christians look forward to the Rapture and the return of Christ. Jews describe the coming of Moshiach or "anointed one" who will liberate mankind from meaninglessness, teach the purpose of life and raise the Universe to a state of harmony and utopia. Cosmologists say the world will move into a new evolutionary cycle, the noosphere—an earthly sphere of collective thought and consciousness that will usher in a time of universal peace, harmony and telepathy. Theosophy—an ancient faith that melds religious conviction with scientific mysteries—calls it the "consummation of the age." And New Age mystics foretell harmonic convergence which will give access to higher realms of awareness.

It's no coincidence that these prophecies, customs and teachings sync closely with one another—even though the religions and philosophies which inspired them developed thousands of miles apart, on different continents, amongst peoples who speak entirely different languages. You've probably seen modern-day versions of this phenomenon, as a kind of collective wisdom—or even a single idea or new invention—emerges in several places at once, amongst people or societies who are worlds apart.

What is this collective wisdom telling us now?

That the world is racing towards significant change, that a great era of enlightenment is coming, and that luckily—according to teachings—it will be a giant leap forward...for the better. Soon, the world will become a more harmonious, thoughtful and conscious place. But what does that mean to our lives right now, today—and how can you insure that you thrive and flourish in this coming age of enlightenment?

Before I Go Much Further, I'd Like to Introduce Myself...

My name is Esperanza Universal. And for the past 20 years, I've been guiding people from all walks of life through the process of healing their hearts, regaining their power of thought and connecting to universal wisdom and assistance.

I didn't always do this work. In fact, I started my professional career as a trial lawyer after a childhood filled with poverty, abuse and displacement. For years, I moved from one foster home to another, never knowing whether I'd find a loving environment or one that was more dysfunctional than the last. At one point, I was even put in an institution for delinquent girls since, in those days, they made no distinction between displaced children and troublemakers. Something always kept me moving forward, however, and I eventually overcame my troubled beginnings to graduate from law school. I started a law practice in San Diego, California.

And as my career progressed, I could sense a special force constantly driving me forward to grow and excel professionally. I became well known in my community. I joined numerous local civic and professional groups. At one point, I even assembled an exploratory committee to prepare for a run for Congress. At the time, I would have been the first Hispanic woman legislator.

Life was good back then.

Until one day, during a routine case in the courtroom, I saw a human form behind the witness box. I was bewildered and more than a little unsettled by it. No one else observed it, I could tell. And to my surprise, the angel... being... I'm not sure what... began giving me questions to ask during cross-examination. Soon it was apparent that the witness had been holding back on much more than she had previously admitted. I won the case and continued to ponder the experience.

Again and again, the angels would appear to help me in the courtroom—and then at different moments in my life where I now know that my past abuse and resulting beliefs were keeping me from excelling as I had wanted to.

Eventually, through the work of these unusual guardians, I healed myself. But better than that, I found myself connected to an amazing new realm of wisdom, awareness, intuition, assistance and unconditional love. I discovered that healing the past is the only way to access this divine realm of consciousness and universal aid.

Once I learned the formula for healing, I quietly began working with individuals—many of whom were leaders in their professions. As the work progressed, I was called to bring the formula to an ever greater number of people.

Today, I'm the founder of S.O.U.L. Institute—an organization guided by spiritual masters and dedicated to disseminating the same Systems of Universal Law that I was given. We conduct a powerfully moving program called “Mastering Your Life™” that teaches people from around the world to heal their past and harness universal power to improve every aspect of their lives—from their finances to their relationships, careers, philanthropic pursuits and more.

In this report, I'd like to introduce you to this incredible resource of universal aid and make certain that you know how to access it, benefit from it, and thrive with it as we move into a new and exciting time for humankind... a New Age of Enlightenment.

This Ancient Form of Aid Will Soon Become “Modern” Again

Part of what we know will take place in the new era of enlightenment (because it’s actually available to us today) is a greater connection to Source energy—that mysterious network of collective thought, God power, universal wisdom, the knowledge of Ascended Masters, and the pro-active support of evolved souls that is available to everyone who wishes to tap into it.

Connection to Source is a powerful tool we can use here on Earth.

In fact, the idea of connecting to Source as a modern-day success tool was widely promoted by Napoleon Hill in 1937 in his classic book, Think and Grow Rich. In it, Hill described the concept of a Master Mind—the “coordination of knowledge and effort, in a spirit of harmony, between two or more people, for the attainment of a definite purpose.” He even wrote that the potency of mastermind groups could be found both in their economic benefits and in their psychic nature. No author since has described so well the unique phenomenon that occurs when people gather together for the purposes of problem-solving, brainstorming, networking, encouraging and motivating one another.

Hill said, “The human mind is a form of energy, a part of it being spiritual in nature. When the minds of two people are coordinated in a SPIRIT OF HARMONY, the spiritual units of energy of each mind form an affinity, which constitutes the “psychic” phase of the Master Mind.”

Nearly 80 years later, we know that most of the world’s richest industrialists—from the steel magnates and railroad titans of the early 1900’s to the technology giants of today—have used masterminding in one form or another.

Andrew Carnegie had a mastermind group consisting of 50 of his top executives. Henry Ford—who overcame poverty and illiteracy to become one of the richest men in America—assembled with brilliant minds like Thomas Edison, Luther Burbank and Harvey Firestone at their winter mansions in Florida. Hill detailed further in Think and Grow Rich how Infinite Intelligence could be “most readily contacted” in order to “absorb power directly from the great universal storehouse.”

If one of the most respected authors of all time—and many of the greatest industrialists in history—respected and used the power of spiritual energy to get what they wanted from life, isn’t connecting to Source something that we should investigate as a way to make our lives easier, more abundant and more fulfilling?

Think about your own situation for a moment.

What's the vision that you have for your life? Is it money, riches, optimum health, blissful relationships, professional success, philanthropic achievement or something else? These accomplishments are all available right now, once you learn how to connect to powerful Source energy and its unique form of assistance.

We Already Have the Mental Power to Impact Our Physical World

Of course, Napoleon Hill went on to write that “energy is Nature's universal set of building blocks, out of which she constructs every material thing in the universe, including man and every form of animal and vegetable life. Through a process which only Nature completely understands, she translates energy into matter.”

Wow. Transforming energy into physical things. Now that must have been a revolutionary concept in 1937!

Of course, today, scientists concur that this is true. All life forms are made up of carbon cells—little bundles of energy formed from 6 protons, 6 neutrons, and 6 electrons. While there's been a lot of scientific study on energy as the building block of life, what scientists have only recently begun researching is how energy—produced by a single thought, a group meditation, a prayer chain at church or by a mass population fearing the future, for instance—can actually impact our physical world.

There's even a scientific branch for this type of research—noetic science. Since 1973, leading-edge research has delved into the powerful impact of consciousness—exploring phenomena that don't always fit into traditional science. Taken from the Greek word “noetikos” which means intuitive mind or inner knowing, noetic science focuses on how higher consciousness can bring about healing, expand human endeavor and influence how we govern our world.

What this means for the non-scientific community—including all the rest of us—is that higher consciousness and Source energy can actually impact our physical world and affect how we live our lives every day—including everything we see, touch and do.

And if it impacts our daily life, isn't it something we should learn to connect with, utilize and enjoy?

Ancient Cultures Knew All About Connecting With Source Energy and Using It in Their Daily Lives

Much of what we're discovering today about harnessing Source energy and using it in our daily lives is actually the rediscovery of energy used by ancient cultures.

Take Ancient Egypt, for example. Much has been written about how they used knowledge of the cosmos for agricultural production and how they may have used advanced engineering principles to build the pyramids—knowledge that probably wasn't available to them except from evolved sources.

But interestingly, very little is mentioned about their use of energy to heal the body. Egyptian priests are often depicted—including on the walls of Tutakhamen's tomb—with waves of energy radiating from their hands. They knew—as many alternative healthcare practitioners know today—that the body contains energy meridians that can be stimulated for healing when energy is introduced from an outside source. And many statues of Egyptian Pharaohs and priestesses have been carved with holes in their palms, thought to have held crystal or metal cylinders used for healing, manifesting and communicating with the spiritual realm.

Indeed, for their day, the ancient Egyptians were among the most advanced cultures history has ever seen. Their engineering, quarrying and surveying skills enabled them to build massive structures. They developed a system of mathematics. They formalized the practice of medicine (long before Hippocrates the Greek did). They developed glass technology, the first sailing ships, a wide variety of literature and so much more.

The Egyptians were about as advanced as you could get, for their day.

Of course, they didn't have iPhones, jet planes or email, but it's theorized that they had something much more powerful—something that, in their culture anyway, made our modern machines unnecessary... they had spiritual technology.

They were able to harness this spiritual power and thus exert enormous control over their world. They were able to actually design their world as they wanted—creating the technology and other solutions required—rather than simply reacting to events as they happened.

You, too, could soon harness this spiritual connection—and exert tremendous control over what happens in your life. In fact, the most respected spiritual account in history hints that *this is why man was created in the first place.

You, Too, Can Be the Creator of Your Life

You've probably read the Bible at one time or another, but while you may recall—from the Book of Genesis—the story of the creation of man, I wonder, have you really understood it?

In Genesis 1:27, we find, “So God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.” (NIV)

But what does “in His image” really mean? Not surprisingly, most people assume it's that we look like God—in our facial features, our bodies, our ability to move about and so on. But what if it's more than that? Much more.

What if—more than just being created in His likeness—we were also created with His god-like powers of manifesting through conscious thought? Could it be that we were actually given, at birth, the ability to transform physical matter, impact the outcome of situations and impose our will on the day-to-day events of our lives?

Rather than reacting to our world, we would be creators—master engineers of a better life, a better world, more desirable outcomes, optimum health, tremendous bounty and staggering advancement in human achievement.

I think we were created in God's image to do so.

Think about it. Why is it that some people can create the life of their dreams—achieving abundant wealth, enduring marriages, successful careers, supportive relationships, remarkable philanthropic achievements and other aspects of an effortless and blissful life?

It's because we were, in the beginning, created as conscious, spiritual beings—designed not only to connect with each other on a soul-level, but also to connect with the entire realm of God's power, universal energy, eternal wisdom, unconditional love and ascended masters which makes all human endeavor effortless and more expanded.

The World Is Quickly Moving Toward a Time of Expanded Consciousness... A 'New' Age of Enlightenment When the Tremendous Power of Consciousness Will Be Rediscovered

Have you noticed that the media, as well as everyday people, are quickly catching on to this idea? More and more, we see news articles about spirituality and the evolution of the human brain, the incorporation of higher consciousness into modern psychology, a crowd of 30,000 praying for our nation, the role of God in government, and on and on.

The Times of India even ran a full-length feature article on "Positivism: The Path to Bliss."

But like every historic period of emerging enlightenment, today's transition is being accompanied by equally growing darkness. The essential forces of nature are trying to bring balance through opposition.

It's not surprising that we also see near-weekly news stories of warfare, famine and natural disasters, along with widespread civil unrest, economic hardship, and evidence of moral decline.

As the planet awakens to a new, more connected reality, however, conscious thought, awareness, intuition and observance of spiritual laws will become mainstream... practiced by millions of people from world leaders and businesspeople to financial authorities, scientists, doctors, everyday people, and—if you choose to learn how—by YOU.

Fortunately, the World Really Will End as We Know It

This move into the next Age of Enlightenment should not be feared. In fact, it should be celebrated. Wars, hunger, poverty, disease... this will all fall away as mankind moves into an age where higher conscious and deliberate thought really can impact our physical world.

You've probably heard of the coming End Times, Armageddon, 2012 and the Apocalypse. While these concepts have made for some great Hollywood movies, the reality is actually much more interesting—and much more exciting.

We can look forward to better opportunities, unexpected windfalls, friendlier people, more tranquil environments, easier communications, asking for what we want without fear of retribution, understanding what we truly need to be happy, plus so much more.

Not only that, but scientists are just now beginning to grasp the ramifications of a world that will function—not through the normal channels we see today—but through mental, spiritual and conscious connections between people who've discovered the power of this new way of living.

Will You Successfully Make the Transition?

Those who do will enjoy unprecedented power, wealth, wisdom, ability and connection to other like-minded beings.

But many people, sadly, will be left behind. Others—enlightened souls who've been trained to harness the power of consciousness—will experience the full scope of human accomplishment and abundance such as the world has never known.

Will one of the enlightened ones be you?

The Best Way to Connect With Source And Become a More Conscious Being

In my work with people from all walks of life, I've found that the fastest way to connect with supportive Source energy is to heal yourself—emotionally, mentally and spiritually—and become once again open to the support this universal network has available to you.

For most people, this means a profound transformation in the way they think about themselves—and the way they interact with others. During my transformational program Mastering Your Life™ (coming up September 23-25), I'll be using unique methods and exercises to help you re-discover your true purpose on Earth. All that you are today—and all that the Universe has in store for you—is governed by this information. Indeed, everyone on Earth has a purpose, yet most people have no idea what their true role is.

I'll help you uncover this critical information and help you determine the spiritual help that's available to you.

Are You Clear Why You're Here?

Additionally, we'll work on clearing a path to greater spiritual connection—linking you to Source energy and all that it has to offer. This connection is one reason why you're here. Indeed, it's why we're all here.

Then over three intensive days, we'll work together to create a more aware, more intuitive, more conscious blueprint for your life. We'll look at those parts of your life that aren't working. We'll look at the obstacles that are holding you back, and I'll help you find your place in the Divine plan. Additionally, together we'll:

- Erase past memories and beliefs that no longer serve you. By far, one of the biggest challenges people face is the negative energies and memories that have almost permanently wired themselves into your subconscious mind. Throughout the weekend intensive, you will engage in powerful experiences that can permanently 're-wire' your subconscious so these unnecessary negatives will no longer control your life.
- Let go of obstacles that no longer support you. Fear of success, fear of failure, fear of procrastination, fear of loss—all of these can be crippling and all are completely unnecessary. You'll learn how to let go of everything that does not serve your goals of (1) being who you want to be, and (2) having what you deserve.
- Uncover the hidden love of yourself. As a child, you had love for yourself. But today, it's likely been long since buried beneath all the "junk" others have piled on top of you. Deep inside, however, the love is still there, and it's the ultimate key to health, happiness and success. We'll go through some very powerful exercises that will help you understand what went wrong—and what needs to be done to fix what is broken.
- Discover how enemies can be great teachers and why great teachers might actually be those who "bother" you. You know the type—the ones who make you cringe when they're near or make you angry with their off-handed remarks. One of the greatest discoveries I made was understanding what this all means, and how to use my feelings towards these people to know and free myself.
- Realize that Unconditional Love is your only key to freedom. I'll help you capture the blissful feeling of self-love—and the peace that comes from unconditional love for others. You'll discover that your soul is actually here on earth to experience love in all its forms. Unconditional love for yourself and others helps free you to enjoy life more.
- Create relationships that fulfill you. Many times we get so wrapped up in our day-to-day lives that we forget (or ignore) those who are closest to us. At other times, the wrong relationships can distract us from true happiness. Once you understand the new teachings I will be sharing with you, your personal relationships will improve many times over.
- Experience transformation that you never dreamed was possible. You know things. You have innate wisdom. In fact, you have a spiritual master with abundant intelligence inside of you. Everyone does...it's actually how we, as spiritual beings, were designed. During the "Mastering Your Life™" program, you'll have the opportunity to transform your life from one of limitation and lack—to one of abundance and riches by learning to tap the Master within. You'll release limited beliefs that control your experiences by surrendering to this Knowing Self.
- Achieve complete alignment of your heart, mind, body and spirit. Think of your life experience like a four legged stool. If all four legs are in perfect alignment, the seat is steady and can support great things. But when one leg is even a fraction off balance, you and everything else you set on the stool could come toppling down the moment you set a little weight on it. Life is that way, too. And much like life, you must re-discover the perfect balance and learn those steps for keeping everything in alignment.

If you've attended other "spiritual" programs and come away wondering, "Did I get it...Am I connected yet," Mastering Your Life from S.O.U.L. Institute will be the last program you'll need to attend. Many teachers and "gurus" deliver programs that include non-stop thinking, writing, planning and talking. Mastering Your Life is dramatically different.

We start with your heart and free your soul to experience the conscious connection that is waiting for you. Only then do we move forward to give you practical ways to bring this new-found consciousness, energy, wisdom, Divine assistance and spiritual connection to every area of your life.

This transformation of spirit, by the way, is both instant... and permanent when you live the universal teachings as given to you.

We are, after all, spiritual beings first and foremost. As such, we are guided and governed by spiritual laws.

How to Use the Spiritual Laws to Master Your Life Today—And Reap the Future Abundance the Universe Has in Store for You

When you participate in the Mastering Your Life™ program, you'll discover that—just as there are physical laws continuously at work around us like gravity, space, time, temperature, inertia and other absolutes—Spiritual Laws are also at work governing our world, even if you aren't aware of them. You can't disagree with them or turn them on and off. They simply exist, just like the Law of Gravity exists.

But the good news is, you can allow these Spiritual Laws to work for you...or against you. It's always your choice.

In fact, choice is the deciding factor with these Spiritual Laws. With every thought that you think, with every feeling you choose and with every choice that you make, these Laws are dictating your outcomes and the results you get from life.

One of these laws, for example, is the Law of Gratitude: The more genuinely grateful you are, the more you will receive. What are some others? The Law of Karma says that for every action, there is an equal and opposite reaction.

And The Law of Attraction says that whatever you put into the world has to return to you. The Law of Abundance, on the other hand, is that universal truth that says the world is infinitely abundant. There is more than enough for everyone. But unfortunately, the fear of lack shared by millions of people in the economy can actually turn the financial markets and create pain for everyone. Yet the reality is there are many people today making millions of dollars quite easily. Put your consciousness on that goal, focus on abundance—and see what the Universe returns to you.

The Law of Reflection typically governs our relationships. If you find those people closest to you being distant, angry, judgmental and intolerant—that conduct and those behaviors are a direct reflection of you. Perhaps you feel betrayed, lied to, or disconnected in your relationships—that’s a signal to look at how you’ve betrayed and lied to yourself or disconnected from your own needs and desires. Understand that the Law of Reflection is at work here. In fact, it’s always a reflection of something inside of you that needs to be healed.

These Spiritual Laws are incontrovertible, by the way. They will deliver every time, based on the choices that you make. In fact, you can tell if the Laws are working for you simply by looking at the results you’re getting.

What’s the best way to insure that the Spiritual Laws work for you and not against you? Be responsible for the choices that you make. The Universe will always reflect what you desire.

Are you allowing lack, stress, chaos or pain in your life? You don’t have to. But if you don’t know about these Laws, you’ll be at their mercy. It’s far better to become aware of them, learn to incorporate them into your life—and reap the benefit of these laws working on your behalf. Life will flow more easily and much more abundantly.

Of course, most people—because they simply don’t know about these Laws—will never access the abundance of wealth, wisdom, help and fulfillment that awaits them.

Universal Source Is Waiting for You to Access It

Have you already accomplished a substantial amount of success in your life... but know deep down that you could be living an even more joyful life full of Love and Abundance?

Do you know there's a much better life out there waiting for you, but don't understand that there are some real answers as to why you haven't achieved the life you want? Do you feel that the world is rushing by at breakneck speed, yet your life continues to look pretty much the same—year after year? Do you KNOW you are capable of so much more, yet continue to experience the same people, problems and week-by-week experiences that you've come to accept? Do you constantly fight the same battles—day after day, year after year—never quite understanding why the same disasters and mishaps keep happening to you?

Many people who've attended Mastering Your Life™ over the years have faced these kinds of situations—only to be transformed by their program experience.

If you know you want to make change, I ask you to seriously consider registering for the Mastering Your Life program when we make it available in just two weeks' time.

A Quick Summary of What Source Energy Is Telling Us

I hope I've met my goal in this report of getting you to think differently than you ever have before. I hope I've helped you realize how much better and more fulfilling your life could be. The truth is you have a profound role and a "bigger game" to play—once you get connected to Source energy and its healing, helpful power. To recap the principles I've shared with you today:

1. A coming age of enlightenment has been foretold for thousands of years by different cultures around the globe.
2. Soon the world will become more harmonious, thoughtful and conscious.
3. One major benefit of the new era of enlightenment will be a greater connection to Source energy—that mysterious network of collective thought, God power, universal wisdom, the knowledge of Ascended Masters, and the pro-active support of evolved souls that is available to everyone who wishes to tap into it.
4. Napoleon Hill, author of Think and Grow Rich, recorded that many of the world's richest industrialists used collective wisdom and its resulting energetic connection to Source as the basis for their success. They used spiritual energy to get what they wanted.
5. Everyday people also have the power to impact our physical world, since mental energy is known to be transmutable into physical matter. We should learn to connect with Source energy since it has the ability to impact our daily life.
6. Ancient cultures, such as the Egyptians, were able to harness spiritual power and thus exert enormous control over their world. We now know that using spiritual connection in this manner is one of the reasons why man was created in the first place.
7. The Book of Genesis tells us that we were created in God's image. But rather than being created in his likeness, it's more probable we were created with His god-like powers of manifesting through conscious thought.

8. The world is quickly moving toward a time of expanded consciousness when the tremendous power of consciousness will be rediscovered.
9. Enlightened souls who've been trained to harness the power of consciousness—will experience the full scope of human accomplishment and abundance such as the world has never known.
10. The best way to connect with Source energy and enjoy the benefits it has planned for you is to heal yourself—emotionally, mentally and spiritually—and become once again open to the support this universal network has available to you.
11. The world is governed by Spiritual Laws that can keep us from true fulfillment or give us access to the abundance of wealth, wisdom, help and fulfillment that awaits us.
12. The good news is that Source energy and all its benefits are available now. It's simply waiting for you to access it.

Connect to Source and Start Claiming Your Human Inheritance

I hope this report has given you a lot more to think about than just becoming more spiritual and achieving higher consciousness. Because the truth is, there is so much more you can do with your life once you shake off the roadblocks and get connected to Source.

At the request of so many people over the last several months, I am finalizing plans for another session of the Mastering Your Life program—a three-day intensive event that brings about powerful transformation and prepares you to play a major role in the new era of enlightenment.

I'll be releasing more information about the Mastering Your Life program over the next several weeks. Space will be limited. But I'll also release additional content including video training materials and a unique telephone session with me to help those people who may not get the chance to work with me personally—during the Mastering Your Life™ program or afterward.

Over the next few weeks, you'll get the tools you need to uncover your inner potential. I'll help you overcome the stress of living up to the expectations society has set for you. I'll help you conquer the world's false pictures of happiness—revealing what true love and true abundance really mean.

You'll learn what is truly important to your Heart—what drives you, and what “secret key” will unlock a real difference for you moving forward. Stay tuned.

Play a Bigger Game Now and Be Ready for the Coming 'New Age of Enlightenment'

In addition, over the next many weeks, I'll be sharing even more of the strategies used to build a conscious, connected life. I can promise you these are not concepts or ideas—but strategies that both myself and others have used to break through to happiness, abundance and success.

They are powerful. They will change your way of thinking. But they are also just the tip of the iceberg of what there is to know about how we'll be living in the new era of enlightenment. The rest of the iceberg is my three-day Mastering Your Life™ program coming up soon in San Diego, California. Keep an eye on your email's inbox because an email from me means more exciting information and greater spiritual connection.

You're just weeks away from this opportunity. I guarantee it will be one of the defining moments of your life.

Stay tuned...

Esperanza Universal

Post Script:

This report and its message have begun to generate a lot of controversy from spiritual “gurus,” religious experts and faith-based representatives who want to present a different (and more fearful) scenario of what will soon come about for humankind.

If you've benefited from the message in this report and now see a better vision for your own life and for the world, won't you give that gift of insight to friends, colleagues and others? You can help your friends in two ways:

1. Share this Report with a friend, and enlighten others to the exciting possibilities in store for them by sending them to: <http://www.soulinstitute.com/age-of-enlightment.html>
2. Post a comment at my blog about this report. Help others understand why they need to act on it. Visit <http://www.masteringyourlife.com/category/spiritual-breakthrough>
